At the center, as always, is witty, wry, but basically unflappable Miss Read, steering a steady course through the roll of the seasons.

Order of Fairacre Books

There are some heart wrenching bits here, and as ever, it's worth the time to read. Yes, another delightful Miss Read book. Instead she finds herself as busy and in demand as ever: on holiday in Florence, helping with church and school affairs and offering a kindly ear to her eccentric neighbours.
