Tensions in Middle East: Israel vs Iran

Past prophecies have been fulfilled in a literal manner, as confirmed by the dating of these writings and historical records of confirmation. When they are wounded and bereaved grant them healing and comfort. .

Stability in the Middle East: The Range of Short and Long

The problem is that our society often treats women as something that was created from men: something inferior, weaker, and dependent on men. History has also made it all too clear that stability or instability can also change almost instantly because of the actions of a given figure or leader, personal tensions or ability to cooperate, ill-judged actions or interactions between given actors, outside intervention, success or failure in crisis management or warfare, and catalytic events that capture popular attention. Lord Jesus, you are the Prince of Peace.
