Further remands may take place in absence up to a limit of 6 months after which a further court appearance will be necessary.

Court remands 2 Marshlands Consortium directors for skipping sessions

A proper reason, such as difficulties in locating a vital witness will justify an appropriate delay. Here, the court indicated that it did not expect many cases to be affected by this section. A summary of reasons for the decision should be provided R v Chelmsford Crown Court, ex parte Mills 2000 164 J.

Judge expresses concern over long remands

Even when he does observe abuse, if he has a criminal record he may be reluctant to take the stand and open up the admission of prior convictions. The circumstances in which a person may lawfully be arrested by a peace officer without warrant are set out in s 25 CPEA. In general, remand prisoners are held in special remand facilities or in different sections of prisons from those of other prisoners.
