Sacred Sites of Morocco

Originally it was thought that Idris II was buried, like his father, in Zerhoun, but the discovery in 1308 of an uncorrupted body in Fez, gave impetus to the establishment of a cult of Moulay Idris II. Minaret of the Koutoubia Mosque, Marrakesh, Morocco Sacred sites of Morocco and Islamic pilgrimage from Northwest Africa Islam was brought to North Africa by early Arab warriors conquering territories Oqba Ben Nafi in 680 and Moussa Ben Nosair in 703 - 711 and by traders voyaging back and forth along ancient trans-Saharan caravan routes.

Songhai Empire

I fitted a 300tdi motor and did a few upgrades, true to Landrover nature the forward control is so universal, the size of the ambulance is perfect, not to big and not to small, you can fit everything you need inside the vehicle even a shower and toilet important for the little one and still have enough space to move around. While there were many trade routes in use to varying degrees, the route through the via , , and was heavily used by the empire.

Overland Tours Africa

We journey to the Afromontane forest home of the mountain gorillas for treks to see this endangered primate. As the Mali Empire started to disintegrate, the Songhai reasserted control of Gao. In recent years, overlanders have purposively chosen the Series III based on its rugged ability to endure all types of terrain, along with the basic mechanical knowledge required to keep the vehicle mobile.
