Gosudarstvennaia Tret'iakovskaia galereiâ [WorldCat Identities]

How was art produced to control and co-opt the peripheries of the Soviet Union, particularly Central Asia? Outsider art self-taught art, folk art is made up of paintings, drawings, sculptures, assemblages, and idiosyncratic gardens and other outdoor constructions created by people who have had little or no formal training in art and who produce or at least began by producing art without regard to mainstream recognition or the marketplace. With her own job at the DA's Office in jeopardy, and spiralling into a reliance on alcohol, Alex is not anyone's first choice for help. Exploring the themes of failed utopia and political disillusionment, as well as fantasies of escape and transcendence, this publication includes texts from leading art historians that contextualise the artists' practice along with the artists' own writings providing insight into a career exemplified by innovation and originality.
