(PDF) Creole America: The West Indies and the Formation of Literature and Culture in the New Republic (by Sean X. Goudie), Caribbean Slave Revolts and the British Abolitionist Movement (by Gelien Matthews), and Caribbean Culture and British Fiction in the Atlantic World, 1780

The colonization of the Caribbean Islands by the British Empire came in stages as they attempted to create a colony in Guiana in 1604, but it only lasted for a couple years.

Emancipation Day

I regret to report that Louisiana State University Press decided to release this otherwise distinguished scholarly study without an index.

Caribbean Slave Revolts and the British Abolitionist Movement : Gelien Matthews : 9780807150085

At first, according to Matthews, the abolitionists appeared defensive about slave revolts, with men like Wilberforce identifying such events as counterproductive to the task at hand.

Slave Rebellions and the British Anti

There was a real fear in Britain that it may go the same way as France. Additional Resources Books Drescher, Seymour.

Emancipation Day

A small proportion was freed by the British naval patrol sent to stop and search the ships suspected of carrying slaves.
