This is provided the firm is carrying on a regulated activity falling within the DPB arrangements and the communication is to someone who has already engaged the firm to provide professional services.

Financial Promotions

The equity ratio represents a measure of its capital resources and ability to borrow. This exclusion would also apply to a request from a client to provide the name of an authorised firm to whom the client can be introduced. Similarly, internal transfers of cash among accounts are not considered revenue because they are not an inflow of cash to the school.
