Canada eventually secured over , but only after the 1869—70. Of the three Prairies, Manitoba is the coldest as well as the most humid. With the help of Sir Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior from 1896 to 1905, immigrants began to find their way to the Canadian Prairies.

Prairie provinces expected to quicken Canada's economic growth

After 12 days of just being sea sick, losing weight on my already frail frame, we pulled into Halifax, January 1957. Many of the politicians and grain farmers of this new west were determined to break the trading monopoly of Sault Ste Marie in northern Ontario and campaigned for the construction of a new port facility on Hudson Bay, connected by rail to the south through Winnipeg. Toronto: Dundurn Press , 2007.
