Lista de telenovelas de Portugal

Liderou de forma absoluta durante o período de exibição. Slightly younger, Almeida Faria and Maria Velho da Costa are two prose writers who first became known in the 1960s, when they were applauded for the innovations in their writing, in which they questioned the canons of the realist tradition and explored their inner voices.

La novela negra contemporânea en Portugal, ¿un género repudiado?

El mismo año es también cuando se inicia la producción de Ana Teresa Pereira, aunque su corpus lo asimilemos más a la tradición de la novela enigma y a la hibridación y al juego con referentes cinematográficos.

La novela negra contemporánea en Portugal, ¿un género repudiado?

En paralelo hay que destacar que existen otros creadores con objetivos más prosaicos.

Contemporary Portuguese Culture

During his life, which ended at the young age of 47, Pessoa also worked as a translator, a critic, and a publisher. Rooted in the 1950s, Urbano Tavares Rodrigues finds himself at the crossroads between the existentialist and Marxist philosophies that moulded his political and erotic vision of the world, while Augusto Abelaira explores the circumstances of daily life with cutting humour and a sharp reflexive sense. Es el caso de Francisco José Viegas, nacido en 1962, que en 1989 publica Crime em Ponta Delgada y abre una serie protagonizada por el inspector Jaime Ramos.

Contemporary Portuguese Culture

Ana Luísa Amaral and Maria Rosário Pedreira two of the best female voices of recent times show us some different ways of looking at generally banal or familiar scenes from daily life. . Couto Viana, Alberto de Lacerda and José Bento.

Contemporary Portuguese Culture

Portada da primeira edição da obra Os Lusíadas, o poema épico nacional. Pero no debemos leer la novela de Cardoso Pires como un intento de normalizar el género negro en Portugal, sino como lo que es, la herramienta que más perfectamente le permite indagar sobre la propia historia portuguesa. La obra más paradigmática y de mayor éxito popular de la década es la Crónica dos bons malandros, de Mário Zambujal, publicada en 1980 y con más de 35 ediciones hasta el momento e incluso una película muy mala de 1984.

An Introduction to Portuguese Literature in 6 Authors

It is also possible to discern a variety of paths in our most recent poetry - that of the 1980s and 90s. Still, it is worth mentioning the revelation late in life of António Osório who possesses a humble style that remains close to things natural and human , the works of Nuno Júdice who has managed to creatively reintegrate a large number of literary traditions and is the most widely translated poet of his generation , João Miguel Fernandes Jorge who wanders to the tune of a scattered and circumstantial memory , Vasco Graça Moura who reencounters a mannerist attitude beneath a veil of irony , Joaquim Manuel Magalhães another leading critical voice and António Franco Alexandre the conveyer of the unease generated by a manner of speech that borders on muteness.
