There is an aspect of spirituality into which I believe all humanity can tap, but can tap into that spirituality without degrading other human beings or without creating a new hierarchy of power which then contests with secular power and destroys society. They waste money on frivolous projects like Image Task Force which constantly burnish the image and identity of Sir Goddie Danfere. It is said that satire offers neither the escape of comedy nor the purgation of tragedy.

As earlier mentioned, our concern in this essay is to identify and analyze those glaring sociological indices of African Drama as epitomized in the two texts being studied. KA: Apart from Duyole Pitan-Payne, his wife, Bisoye, and their daughters, the Pitan-Payne family, a reputable family in Lagos, is a dysfunctional one in this novel. Soyinka argued that British colonization found its justification in the ideology of the nation as the British came to Nigeria only to plunder and so prosper his nation.
