The Origins of Subsequent Agreements and Subsequent Practice

The role of the object and purpose is one of degrees and variances, and cannot be generalized.

The 5 Canons of Rhetoric

Unfortunately, much of our knowledge of this great outpouring comes to us secondhand because the originals no longer exist, although we have some fragments of the writings—a few poems of Sappho and some works of Aristotle, for example—and some remains of aesthetic works, such as the , the sculpture of, friezes of the battle of the centurians, and drawings on pottery. It has been suggested that, as a result of these differences, Euripides's work was not popular at dramatic festivals, earning him relatively few prizes.

The 5 Canons of Rhetoric

The image of Nike is prominent throughout Greek art and was traditionally associated with victory in war, athletics, and even poetry contests. It cannot be regarded as part of the treaty, since it received neither the approval of the President nor the consent of the other contracting power. .

The Elements of Style: Stylistics in Literature

It also shows how contextualism occasionally pushes the edges of voluntarism in the VCLT. .
