Major Airline Policies And For Flying With A Bicycle

My guess is that by charging almost twice as much as other airlines, Delta may be trying to force bicycle travelers off their flights entirely. You can decant it into smaller containers, or just stick it in your bike bag and save yourself the trouble.

Don't Pack These Bike Tools in Your Carry

I think they probably treat the bike better if it looks like a bike rather than a box. I had my panniers and other stuff packed into a large cheap plastic carrying bag so it constituted another single piece of luggage, making sure it did not exceed 23 kilos. We have been to KCTJ to ride their 18 mile loop around town, but requires a courtesy car drive to it.

Don't Pack These Bike Tools in Your Carry

It's really set up for cars, but there are generous shoulders in spots and traffic is going slow.

Fly Your Bike

When the 4 hours expires, so does your claim for damage.

Major Airline Policies And For Flying With A Bicycle

Not a scratch on the bikes, so T was right.

Company Search Subscription Service

Then covered the back seats with a blanket and put both frames in the back. FAQ Motorbikes are classified as dangerous goods in air transport. Hot on the heels of American Airlines, Delta recently announced they will no longer be charging a bike fee.

Fly and Bike

Having said that, when bikes are delayed, EasyJet is very good at making good the error.
