CANADA 1892

Cairo was an important post, the key to British power in the area and a central point in Anglo-American planning for war with the Soviet Union. To my relief, the portraits worked out fine and made them all very happy.

Order From Chaos: Canada is not a country.

At dawn she was gone, taking her superstitions with her.

Doc paints a dynamic portrait of complicated Canadian poet

Bear with me as this post may be a bit of a stream-of-consciousness rant as I wade through the great mass of silliness in this article. Now I live in Toronto and go to Halifax for work once a month.

A telling portrait of a nation

No one has ever successfully argued that Canadians are a people.
