In vain did the women load the guns, bring water from the well, and do all that it was possible to do in sustaining the courage of the men. Horatio Cushman, the son of Protestant missionaries sent to Mississippi in 1820, published a rambling book in 1899 on the history of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, and Natchez Indians.

Tomlinson, Everett T. (Everett T. Titsworth), 1859

After four years of service in the Confederate army, he was for a number of years engaged in teaching in Texas, Mississippi, and Alabama.

Bill Robinson

General Sam Houston, then an ensign, displayed great bravery and was severely wounded in this battle. Colonel Chivington replied to Major Anthony, as the Major himself told me, that he had no orders to receive and no advice to give.
