Custodian plans at Orkney's Italian Chapel

Most of the interior decoration was done by , a prisoner from . The rest was lined with plasterboard and then painted by Chiocchetti and others in a Trompe L'oeil style resembling the churches of Italy, with bricks at the top of the wall and a dado along the base to resemble carved stone.

Building the Italian Chapel

I had not long had a baby - she was 4 months old.

Custodian plans at Orkney's Italian Chapel

A fitting tribute A memorial, made by South Ronaldsay man Willie Budge, stands by the side of the road leading to the Chapel.

Orkney's Italian Chapel on Apple Books

I sat by the bed and listened to the tales of 101-year-old Alison Sutherland-Graeme whose father had owned the island of Lamb Holm upon which Camp 60 was built. Palumbi told his wife, Pierina, about her and showed her the photograph.
