The Cambridge History of Philosophy in Late Antiquity

Since the first Presocratic philosophers, light had an important. Ambiens autem sensibilia his quae alterius potentiis et eorum quae inde bonorum partem etiam ipsius his exhibens, quia, quod perfecte bonum non in salvare se ipsum solum habet le plenum, sed iam et ea, quae ad alia datione et non invidiosae operationis omnia bonifacere desiderat et sibi similia facere.

. However, the central refutation occurs in Proposition 206: Omnis anima partialis descendere in generationem in infinitum et ascendere potest a generatione in ens.

Reassessing the Historico

Proclus distinguishes between the following faculties of soul: sense perception, imagination phantasia , opinion, discursive thought, and intellection. He ought not to insist that his author is always correct, but he ought rather to value the truth more than the man; he ought not to become an exclusive partisan of his philosopher, as Iamblichus was for Plato.
