When the Hits series developed a new era starting from 1995 through to 2001 see below , BMG and Telstar went on to release Pure Hits 97 in 1997 which is spiritually a sequel to the Hits '93 and Hits '94 series due to its very similar cover artwork. It contained 32 tracks, 15 of which appeared on the collection, The Hits Video 7.

He is best known for his work with the Beastie Boys. Initially, the Hits brand was arguably as popular as its main rival and all of the first eight volumes achieved at least a platinum BPI award, with several of the very early albums going multi-platinum. However, each song's running time was reduced to fit 25 tracks on a single disc usually by an early fade-out , therefore, the new format was not a success, and sales for Hits 51 were much lower than Hits 50, and charted only at 10 — possibly because buyers were aware of the 50 track edited format.
