Origins of the Medicare Kidney Disease Entitlement: The Societal Security Amendments of 1972

Each hearing by a committee and subcommittee, except the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, is required to be open to the public except when the committee or subcommittee, in open session and with a majority present, determines by record vote that all or part of the remainder of the hearing on that day shall be closed to the public because disclosure of testimony, evidence, or other matters to be considered would endanger the national security, would compromise sensitive law enforcement information, or would violate a law or a rule of the House.

Crime Control: The Federal Response

On October 4, 1982, he selected Joe Dusenbury, previously the Commissioner of the South Carolina Vocational Rehabilitation Services and President of the National Rehabilitation Association, as NCD Chairperson. NCD staff and members contributed to the development of the questions and structure of the survey. It also effectively used this time to begin mobilizing nationwide grassroots advocacy for the ADA to demonstrate that people throughout the country not just a few persons from a think tank demanded its passage.

Major Decisions in the House and Senate on Social Security: 1935

Through DREDF, Funk, Wright, Breslin, and Mayerson could advocate a national legislative and law reform agenda to provide more leverage for meeting the concerns of persons with disabilities. Williams R-DE offered a substitute amendment to provide a 10%, rather than a 15%, benefit increase. If objection is made by two or more Members to the consideration of any measure called, it is recommitted to the committee that reported it.
