Recently, several States have enacted regulatory regimes or applied existing State consumer protection statutes that undermine these goals by imposing new regulatory requirements on the Department's Direct Loan servicers, including State licensure to service Federal student loans. See Warren, New Light on the History of the Judiciary Act of 1789, 37 H ARV. Two groups of Justices concluded that the 1965 section reached only positive state law and did not preempt common-law actions; different alignments of Justices concluded that the 1969 provisions did reach common-law claims, as well as positive enactments, and did preempt some of the claims insofar as they in fact constituted a requirement or prohibition based on smoking health.
