William Clayton (Mormon)

From the very beginning, members were commanded to gather to the place where the church was established. By the way, William Arridus King has one more connection with Mormon history. Upon his arrival, as the senior partner Hunt assumed command of the expedition.

Huldah Dimeras Vaughn (1808)

Also traveling in the new group were church members from Mississippi who had taken a more southern route toward the Great Basin. Alpheus reached around his son with a long whip and cut off the snake's head.

Later migration After the initial departure of the Latter-day Saints living in Illinois and Missouri, converts to the church from other areas in the United States and from Europe followed the initial trail to join the main body of the church in Salt Lake City. He came out with Brigham Young in the first company that left Winter Quarters, although he didn't go all the way to Salt Lake.
