Alaska Division of Mines and Minerals, 1962, Mines and Petroleum Bulletin, April 1962: Alaska Division of Mines and Minerals Newsletter 1962-4, 2 p. The gravity is lower on the Moon than on earth but will be even lower on the asteroids and some of the planetary satellites.

Mining and Exploration Stories

Geological Survey Open File Report: Technical Data Unit classification number 263, 4 sheets. The mountain serenity of the grassy meadows along Cripple Creek was broken in 1891 when a cowboy named Bob Womack found a strange form of gold in the cold waters of Cripple Creek. As a result, the cleat porosity is gas filled, and no dewatering of the coals is required.

Mining and Exploration Stories

Numerical Simulation Studies Because of their layered, fractured, and heterogeneous nature, CBM reservoirs are very complex.
