Adeniyi

He reportedly travelled to the UK five weeks ago where he had a surgical operation a fortnight ago for an undisclosed illness. All entrance gates to the palace were locked, while residents of Sagamu were seen in groups discussing the passage in whispers. He later became successful in life through hard work, dedication to duties and what he called element of luck.

Adeniyi

The late Akarigbo became an orphan at the age of six, in 1942, after his father, Prince Michael Adeyemi Sonariwo died on August 28, 1924 having lost his mother earlier. A Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountant, Oba Sonariwo, who was born in Ita Eleye, Lagos in 1936, was the 18th prominent traditional ruler of Sagamu.
