AMERICAN PAINTING AND SCULPTURE. DELAWARE ART MUSEUM.

Modern and contemporary styles represented in the collection include precisionism, surrealism, abstract expressionism, geometric abstraction, pop and op art, Fluxus, photo realism, and minimalism, as well as works that explore social and political issues. To this day, the de Young Museum houses a formidable collection of international textiles and costumes, as well as art of the Americas, Oceania, and Africa. Guggenheim founded the Guggenheim Foundation in the '30s to foster an appreciation of modern and contemporary art, and the museum here has an impressive collection of paintings by Kandinsky, Klee, Chagall, Picasso, and Mapplethorpe.

Art + Artists

Wieseman to curate the exhibition Perfect Likeness: European and American Portrait Miniatures from the Cincinnati Art Museum 2006 with its landmark catalogue. For nearly 30 years, the museum has acquired examples of the creative and technical aspects of the printmaking process.

Insider Tip: Stop by the Stark Bar for a creative cocktail and cool retro decor, or spring for a coffee and a homemade gourmet ice cream sandwich at the LACMA café. Asia is the longtime home of most of the human population. It invites museum visitors to look into a past world very different from our own, yet one that has continued to influence the development of ideas through modern times.

Contemporary Craft and Decorative Arts

The Hogg Brothers Collection In the 1920s, Texas philanthropist William C. One year prior to its opening to the public in 1916, the Cleveland Museum of Art purchased its first painting, John Singleton Copley's Portrait of Catherine Greene, thereby launching a commitment to collecting superior examples of American art. He completed his doctorate at Princeton in 2002 and previously worked at the Princeton University Art Museum, Hood Museum of Art at Dartmouth College, and National Academy Museum in New York.
