Sanitation

Ten of these works were producing building bricks and high quality facing bricks while the 11th works produced fireclay refractories.

Stoneware

In the same year it was stated that some 4,000 of Hanley's 7,200 houses had no gas, and that, while the average town had one street lamp for every 60 inhabitants, Hanley had only one for every 107. It is credited as being one of the earliest examples of stoneware made in England.

Sharpe's Pottery Museum

The works were situated in the village in a street called Wormcake Street. Rawdon pit was troublesome for many years and operations stopped in 1844.

Industry

Our heartfelt thanks are due to Keith and Barbara Foster for arranging the conference so successfully.
