Skeptics claim Q cannot be considered canonical because there is ample evidence that Luke knew and used the text of canonical Matthew. But as long as Jesus intended both- and it is quite likely that he did, given the Old Testament concept of the poor-then it would be unfair to accuse either evangelist of an unhistorical tampering with the words of Jesus.

Synoptic Problem Website: Annotated Bibliography

If a modern reconstruction of Matthew, Mark and Luke can claim to be canonical, so can a modern reconstruction of Q. Their beloved leader is dead; their hopes of reigning over the New Kingdom on twelve thrones with Jesus are dashed to pieces; there will be no overthrow of the hated Romans after all.
