Unclay by T.F. Powys

A type I event is present for every change of state explicitly or implicitly represented in a text.

Outside the Canon — T. F. Powys' Short Stories and the Ordinary

He also formed close friendships with , , and the notorious occultist and magician. Dust upon a book or in a corner, a straw upon the floor-cloth, show now only as objects of interest. The air he breathed was Susie; whatever he touched was her too.

Their sister also published a novel and some poetry, while Marian Powys was an authority on lace and lace-making and published a book on this subject. Powys's unorthodox version of Christianity reveals strands of mysticism, quietism, and pantheism, but the major influence upon him was the Bible, and he claimed that Religion 'is the only subject I know anything about'.

The Powys Society — about T.F. Powys

Even DEATH, who you would think would be jaded at our petty human pleasures, is a pure horndog. They were so repulsive you couldn't stop looking at them. Love creates and separates; Death destroys and heals.
