SEFER HOKHMAT SHELOMOH (GLOSSES ON THE TALMUD), RABBI SOLOMON LURIA, KRAKOW: [ISAAC BEN AARON PROSTITZ?], 1582

A parallel Hebrew-only edition of the book was issued around the same time by the same publisher. The latter printed books in a number of European cities, including Worms 1512-1529.

Sefer Birkat Shelomoh (2003 edition)

Of particular interest is his long note to Ps. This is one of very few works by Jozef Isaëls portraying figures from his own religious heritage. His exposition of Psalms, in particular, achieved great popularity and would be the first of the group to be published, in 1477 perhaps in Bologna.

They planned to issue the entire Bible in sixteen installments, of which this volume comprises parts 1 and 2 Genesis and Exodus 1:1-14:16. Some prewar European communities established Hayyei Adam Societies that would regularly meet to study the code. The books were issued by Abraham Joseph also: Joseph Abraham Basevi, scion of an Ashkenazic family from Italy the surname derives from the Ashkenazic pronunciation of Bathsheba , who, together with his father Shabbetai Mattathias and brother Abraham see lot 254 , published about forty titles in Salonika between circa 1594 and 1605.

Instead of a press, the Rosenthal family put together an important library that drew people from afar; Leopold Zunz judged it as one of the best collections in private hands. Neither Habermann nor Mosche N. If Eliah favored the Haskalah, he vehemently condemned German religious reforms, as he revealed in an 1819 letter to Banet, then in the midst of the campaign against the Hamburg temple.
