Little Green Book of Concrete

Illnesses that we supposed to be evils of the past, such as tuberculosis, recur.

Housing and Planning Bill: 2 Nov 2015: House of Commons debates

It is vital that we enable this recovery of nature. It will lead to a huge loss of affordable homes to rent and buy, and be a huge let-down to those who believed the election pledges. May I put to him a straightforward and honest question? I am going to make some progress now.

Debate: Environment Bill

That is what this is about: putting the profit of landlords and vulture funds ahead of people. Copy Link - - My Lords, I wanted to return to the question of sustainable fishing, which was mentioned by, among others, the noble Baroness, Lady Jones of Whitchurch. As we know, the water vole has suffered extreme decline, mostly as a consequence of the release of the American mink.

Little Green Book of Concrete

People in that village who had not spoken to one another for 20 years were standing shoulder to shoulder in an effort to raise the money for that village hall. We have arrived at a place where we need a moratorium on right to buy; we do not need to extend it any further.

Homelessness Bill: 12 Nov 2001: House of Lords debates

There are good aspects to it I want to support and there are bits of it I cannot. In addition to this, for every room booked the hotel will donate a fantastic £25 direct to the Arboretum. What is the position relating to local authorities buying up houses on the open market for social housing? It is important to say that is not rhetoric.
