NGOs in Trade Development: International Players

Regarding the remaining regions, the curfew and the closure of restaurants, schools and recreational facilities were lifted on May 8; the prohibition of public gatherings was lifted on July 30. Beyond the domestic impact of the health crisis, the economy has been sharply impacted by the slowdown in export oriented ready-made garments sector which accounts for more than eighty percent of exports.

House of Commons Standing Committee on Finance

Today, camels have been replaced by airplanes, trains, and ships, and international trade is more alluring than ever. The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC declared its first case of COVID-19 on March 10, 2020, and the virus continues to spread across the country with thousands of confirmed cases and hundreds of deaths. .

On the other hand, the greater the district magnitude and the more pluralitarian the electoral system is, political polarization and federalism help poor countries to achieve better economic performance. These scenarios incorporate the contribution of the policy actions announced as of mid-April. This temporary suspension will allow member-countries to raise their overall fiscal deficit temporarily and use the additional external support provided by donors in response to the COVID-19 crisis.

Global Elites: COVID

Salaries for suspended government services such as those provided at the Melchior Ndadaye International Airport continue to be paid by the government. The tracker includes information that is publicly available or provided by the authorities to country teams and does not represent views of the IMF on the measures listed.
