Two poems that show an Islamic tradition of celebrating Holi and colours

. It comes from the ecumenical Chishti tradition that has always advocated generosity to all, irrespective of their religion.

Two poems that show an Islamic tradition of celebrating Holi and colours

Cast like a gem in the name of the prophet, Each drop falls with the beat of Al-lah, Al-lah, Only he may play with these colourful dyes, Who has learnt to lose himself in Allah. Rang rangeeli ohi khilave, jis seekhi ho fanaa fi Allah. Mohay pir paayo Nijamudin aulia Nijamudin aulia mohay pir payoo Des bades mein dhoondh phiree hoon Toraa rang man bhayo ri.
