The center offers a wide range of information and services on the subject of assistive technologies. As a student gets older, the IEP team gets ready for the change to adulthood.

ERIC

Some IEP teams begin working with students as early as middle school to help them explore their interests and possible careers. An example of a goal for a 10th grader might be: After graduating from high school, I will enroll at ABC College an automotive technician school and take classes to prepare me for a career as a mechanic.
