The So

James does what he has always done. I cannot think of anything more fitting by way of closing than to stand quietly together and to commit this matter to the Lord in prayer.

Who Was James, Jesus' Brother? What the Bible Tells Us About Him

Various forces and trends through the led to the situation where monks were no longer following this manner of living. Most offenses in the church result from misunderstandings and many could be quickly resolved if offended parties would just go to the source and find out the facts. Notice that our Lord specifically says it involves a question of sin -- and sin is defined by the Word of God.

Matthew 18:15 If your brother sins against you, go and confront him privately. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.

Jesus came from a big family. James is one of the 120 filled with the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the day the Church begins.

The So

Satan can hinder our spiritual life, and even deceive us into apostasy, through harbored bitterness or unforgiveness Matt.

Tell It to the Church

Why is the matter to be first kept private between you two? But God can go further, that is the point. Only after they stop speaking does he respond, and his answer demonstrates his knowledge of the Scriptures, his , and strong, impartial leadership. This article needs additional citations
