These can be included directly in the plan. This workshop activity was devised by William Morrish in Planning to Stay and was used a few years ago to help the town of Orofino, Idaho to set goals.

Community Planning

Your estimate of when the project could be self sustaining should be indicated in your proposal. You must know and be able to communicate exactly what you want to do with these things, and that is why you should design a project to carry out what you want to achieve.

Community Planning

The term 'pending' shall mean authorized but not yet completed. These can be spelled out in the proposal. Homes and Gardens Community Streets Neighborhood Niches Anchoring Institutions Public Gardens Location Scale Mix Time Movement Completed matrix After the citizens assembled their images on the matrix they made notes about the positive and negative aspects of the elements.

Community Planning

As a first step, it is important to identify the stakeholders in your project. Completed plans are expected by this summer.
