Ilya Yefimovich Repin 5 August 1844 — 29 September 1930 was the most renowned Russian artist of the 19th century. His funeral takes place at St.

Art at The Merrion

In later life Sargent expressed ambivalence about the restrictions of formal portrait work, and devoted much of his energy to mural painting and working en plein air. Nevertheless these incidentals did not deflect his attention from the main subject, a stretch of moving water coloured by concealed rocks and hidden sounds, and falling onto the foreground sand like lace.
