R&A has 'cautious optimism' that British Open will go ahead

As part of this Strategy, the Province is launching Urgent and Primary Care Centres across the province to provide timely primary care access, focused on improving services for patients. The report, published in July, which followed a two-year inquiry, found that the arts can help keep us well, aid recovery and support longer lives, better lived.

A beautiful suburb where residents enjoy outdoor sporting and West Coast adventure activities all year round, a vibrant arts and culture community and affordable housing, it is no surprise that Ridge Meadows is one of the fastest growing regions in Metro Vancouver. Integrating mental-health and substance-use services into the Nanaimo Urgent and Primary Care Centre will reduce stigma and ensure people get the quality help they need — easier and faster.

Australian Centre for Arts & Health

As a resource to support communities, Urgent and Primary Care Centres are one of the mechanisms to immediately address the urgent and ongoing care needs of all patients within a community. Specialists, including a psychiatrist, pain specialist, geriatrician, cardiologist and endocrinologist will be available on a rotating basis to provide consultation support to Ridge Meadows physicians.

You will be paid for your time and any course fees will be covered. The centre is expected to offer the full range of services in early June 2019. But she says the other reason countries in Europe typically outperform Canada is because their systems are more integrated, offering many kinds of health services for free.

'It's time to recognise the contribution arts can make to health and wellbeing'

Our mission Our mission is to promote and develop the application of creativity and the arts for health and quality of life outcomes for all people in Australia, regardless of age, race, gender or religious or political persuasion.

Is Canada's health care system as great as we believe it to be?
