An Introduction to Sargent's Code of the Mississippi Territory (1799

He was a man of decided personality and so attracted men and inspired them with confidence, that, in hours of necessity when a string man was wanted they chose him without thought of his private opinion or political bias. For example, a judge should resign as a trustee if it would result in detriment to the trust to divest holdings whose retention would require frequent disqualification of the judge in violation of Canon 4D 3.
