Dylan Thomas Biography

He acknowledged his debt to James Joyce 1882—1941 and dotted his pages with invented words and puns the use of two or more words that sound the same, usually for humorous purposes. All the Christmases roll down toward the two-tongued sea, like a cold and headlong moon bundling down the sky that was our street; and they stop at the rim of the ice-edged fish-freezing waves, and I plunge my hands in the snow and bring out whatever I can find.
