

Transvaal from within - a private record of public affairs.

Heinemann - The Transvaal from Within a Private Record of Public Affairs by Fitzpatrick J P

Description: -

-Transvaal from within - a private record of public affairs.

-Transvaal from within - a private record of public affairs.

Notes: First published 1899.

This edition was published in 1900

Filesize: 35.45 MB

Tags: #The #Transvaal #from #Within: #A #Private #Record #of #Public #Affairs #by #J. #Percy #FitzPatrick

The Transvaal from Within. A private record of public affairs. on Apple Books

The interest up to July last had been paid; in January of this year L2,250 was due for interest, and there was not a penny to meet it. His method of trek and expansion has been, to begin by making small hunting excursions into adjacent native territories, to follow up with grazing his cattle there until he created in his own mind a right by prescription, and then to establish it either by force or else by written agreement, too often imperfectly translated.

The Transvaal from Within: A Private Record of Public Affairs (1900 edition)

Colonel Anstruther verbally replied that he should march on to Pretoria, and, to use his own words, as published in his despatch written just before he died, the Boer messenger 'said that he would take my message to the Commandant-General; and I asked him to let me know the result, to which he nodded assent.

The Transvaal from Within: A Private Record of Public Affairs by J. Percy FitzPatrick

Nowhere is there a single word to be found in favour of slavery as an institution; the view of the emigrants, with hardly an exception, being fairly represented in the following sentence, taken from a letter of the Volksraad at Natal to Sir George Napier: 'A long and sad experience has sufficiently convinced us of the injury, loss, and dearness of slave labour, so that neither slavery nor the slave trade will ever be permitted among us.

The Transvaal from Within a Private Record of Public Affairs

The eaten bread was forgotten. Our meeting separated with no more definite decision than that they must report to the 'people,' and be guided by their decision as to what was to be done.

Transvaal from Within; a Private Record of Public Affairs by Sir Percy Fitzpatri 9780353125100

They received an escort and free pass from Commandant-General Piet Joubert. He had for a time succeeded in quelling all agitation by representing that demonstrations made by the tax-bearing section only embarrassed him in his endeavour to relieve them and aggravated the position by raising the suspicions and opposition of his Conservative faction. From Johannesburg came one memorial bearing 4,507 signatures out of the grand total of 6,665 memorialists.

Related Books

- Settlement pattern in the Dutch Zuiderzee reclamation scheme.
- Notes on Egyptian marriage chiefly in the Ptolemaic period
- Principles of health economics for developing countries
- But first - - basic work for coaches and teachers of beginner athletes
- Aircraft manual for inspection, maintenance and repair