Amulet (comics)

Amulet, an intensely creepy supernatural freakout heavily influenced by the Italian horror master Dario Argento, is a rather less well-behaved affair. A little way further on was another hedge, not so high, also of dry thorn bushes, very prickly and spiteful-looking, and within this was a sort of village of huts. I daresay I could understand your explanation, though you could never understand mine.

And the children could see, through a gap in the trees, that the river flowed out from the town under a great arch in the wall. It was old, old, old, and its birthday was almost at the very beginning of everything. So, leaving my raft, I crept along the river bank, and at last came upon the strangers.
