The Three Ages Of The Interior Life Volume 1 by Reverend Reginald Garrigou

One of his famous work is Mohjat-al-Beyza which is entirely rewritten of the Ihya' ulum al-din Revival of Religious Sciences , the great work by , from the point of view.

On The Jewish Question by Karl Marx

It is not obvious of course that existence is not a predicate. We are speaking about what we know of Christianity.

William James's The Varieties of Religious Experience, Chapter 2

The passive purifications are the means God employs to purify the soul from its vices and to prepare it for the exceptional graces of the supernatural life. Illumination and glorification are gifts of God. Mahaprabhu accepted it and urged Ramananda to speak further on advanced devotional service.

Purpose of Religion

I think I am only a man -- Atmanam Manusham Manye. Even within theoria there is no end to the ascent to higher levels of perfection. So the focus here is on the various parts, in all their variety and multiplicity, that together comprise the unitive whole.
