Digital Services Governance Recommendations

The fine-grained analysis demonstrates that case study designs fit differently to the pathway of the theory continuum.

Case study: Delegation dilemma : Landscape Management

Within most agencies, creating a digital services governance structure is as much an organizational change management effort as it is a technology deployment process. For example, by the end of the study period some unit managers had not involved their staff in the development process and full involvement of upper, strategic management levels had not been reached.

The theory contribution of case study research designs

It can clearly be seen that the phrasing of the performance criteria has shifted to a more user-friendly form, stating what the student must be able to do rather than expressing a similar requirement in the passive tense.
