

Boomerang leg and yaws in Australian aborigines

Royal Society of Tropical Medicine & Hygiene - Papers of Cecil Hackett

Description: -

-
Latin America -- Economic conditions -- 1945-
Regional planning -- Latin America.
Tibia -- Abnormalities -- Australia
Aboriginal Australians -- Diseases
Yaws -- Complications
Boomerang leg and yaws in Australian aborigines
-
Monograph (Royal Society of Tropical Medicine & Hygiene) -- 1
Monograph -- 1
Boomerang leg and yaws in Australian aborigines
Notes: Bibliography: p. 65-66
This edition was published in 1936

Filesize: 65.102 MB

Tags: #Boomerang #legs #and #yaws #in #Australian #aborigines*

Boomerang Leg and Yaws in Australian Aborigines. by Hackett, Cecil J.: Near Fine Hardcover (1936) 1st Edition, Signed by Author(s)

Images of the Interior: Seven Central Australian Photographers.

Biography

By the time of his retirement in 1965, yaws and boomerang leg had been practically eliminated.

Notes on some skeletal changes in pre

. His other works have been listed chronologically. Other works on the Australian Aborigines contain annotations by Hackett or photographs which he took on his trips to Central Australia.

Bone lesions in yaws

In addition, some articles contain terms or views that were acceptable within mainstream Australian culture in the period in which they were written, but may no longer be considered appropriate. Ethical approval This article does not contain any studies with human participants performed by any of the authors. He also became interested in the diagnosis of disease by studying dated human remains.

Boomerang legs and yaws in Australian aborigines*

The correspondence has been artificially arranged in date order. Patterns in ritual tooth avulsion at Roonka. In 1940 Hackett joined the RAF, serving principally in malaria prevention programs in Sierra Leone, India and Burma.

Papers of Cecil Hackett

His main area of work was to implement programs to control yaws with penicillin. The development of boomerang legs is outlined from radiographical and morbid anatomical findings. Georgia residents please add 6% sales tax.

Bone lesions in yaws

Draper Campbell, Sir John Cleland, Robert Edwards, Frank Fenner, H. Miscellaneous correspondence and certificates belonging to various members of the Hackett family, 1882-1934. As well as giving a summary of daily events, the diaries also include addresses and notes.

Boomerang Leg and Yaws in Australian Aborigines. by Hackett, Cecil J.: Near Fine Hardcover (1936) 1st Edition, Signed by Author(s)

Characteristic acquired features of indigenous Australians that may be observed in forensic practice.

Related Books

- Chef-doeuvres de Nericault Destouches.
- [Dibujos - \[exposición\] Salas Pablo Ruiz Picasso, Madrid, noviembre 1982 - enero 1983](#)
- Preface to Paradise lost
- Gendai Firipin keizai no kōzō
- Mes cahiers bleus