The Wicklow Way — British & Irish Walks

Elsewhere is green and pastoral, especially west of the mountains. There isn't a Sphinx, but given the astonishing discoveries they've made in Ireland's bogs, that's perhaps only a matter of time.

Wicklow Way

Donegal, Malinbeg, and other sea cliffs, by Jimmy Leonard. There are easy paths from Moyne to Tinahely on the lower slopes of Ballycumber Hill and Coolafunshoge Mountain.

Ireland Rock Climbing, trad climbing and bouldering

Day 2: Tinahely to Metal Bridge.

Luggala in Wicklow Valley, Ireland

Each trail is signposted with colour-coded arrows. Stay on R756 to reach Hollywood or turn north on R758 by the lake shore to reach Blessington. Alas, for next time, Ireland! This insurance should also cover the possibility of your having to cancel your holiday for whatever reason.

Garda notice to visitors to Luggala

The road descends into Glencree, where a lane branches east to Powerscourt, then with Kippure to the west it climbs to the crossroads and pass of Sally Gap, see below.

Independent Walking Holiday in Ireland

Please walk from the Upper Lake towards the Monastic City on the boardwalk. Again, we get a team going into this glen and recording only one line; when all is there for the taking.

Wicklow Rock Climbs

The walk follows the Poulanass Waterfall before entering the Lugduff Valley. The very friendly people here will make you feel at home and there are lovely traditional pubs to visit to celebrate your final days walk! It can be combined with Duff Hill 720 m, Gravale 718 m and Carrigvore 682 m before descending into Sally Gap. Surrounding Glendalough are the mountains of 699 metres 2,293 ft, the station at 681 metres 2,234 ft, and large of 734 metres 2,408 ft which dominates the head of the valley, and the peaks of 652 metres 2,139 ft, and 661 metres 2,169 ft.
