Adopt-a-wiki page This page adopted by: who welcome you to contribute. Mormonism was born in the United States in the 1830s, and faced major backlash from conservative Americans. Other religious groups — notably a few and Mennonites — preferred to leave the region rather than accept its norms.

Rare, Old Photos of Native American Women and Children

My mother decided that our first meal would simply be wieners and mashed potatoes, since, indeed, we had problems locating ingredients for a fancier meal. The Prairie Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta grew rapidly in these years as settlers began to transform the barren prairie flatland and establish unique cultural settlements. The areas around and are especially notable as good farmland.

Canadian Prairies

Mother opted for the former because her sister had emigrated to Free mantle in the late thirties.
