Rendlesham Royal Palace Linked to Famous Sutton Hoo Burial Site

The gold coins, which allow us to date the burial to the 620s or soon after, are Frankish. Historic information courting to the interval are restricted, and the stays of these buried on the website are fully decayed, leaving no bodily stays to research, the researchers mentioned.

East Anglia is regarded by many scholars as a region in which this settlement was particularly early and dense; the area's name derives from that of the Angles. In 1983, a third excavation of the site led to the discovery of another mound, which contained a warrior and his horse.

Netflix's new Sutton Hoo film The Dig is caught up in sexism row

With the threat of an impending World War II looming large, a widow named Edith Pretty played by Carrie Mulligan hired a self-trained archeologist named to excavate the burial site on her property at Sutton Hoo.

Sutton Hoo

In June 1938, Pretty took him to the site, offered him accommodation and a wage of 30 shillings a week, and suggested that he start digging at Mound 1. Was The Dig filmed at Sutton Hoo? I imagine these mounds must have been very demonstrative.
