Many traditional toy makers have been losing sales to video game makers for years. Want a full-size light table for much less than it costs to buy one? For example, Legos added more colors to certain sets of toys in the 1990s, including colors commonly attributed to girls such as lavender. Throwing and catching balls and frisbees can improve hand—eye coordination.

40 Of The Best DIY Toys To Make With Kids

Learn how to make the classic DIY toy: Tin Can Stilts! China manufactures about 70 percent of the world's toys and is home to more than 8,000 toy firms, most of which are located in the Pearl River Delta of Guangdong Province.

Toy use in animals It is not unusual for some animals to play with toys. In Saharan and North African cultures, play is facilitated by children through the use of toys to enact scenes recognizable in their community such as hunting and herding.

This is often done through encouragement or discouragement, as well as suggestions and imitation. Toys enhance and stimulate creativity. Toy companies change and adapt their toys to meet the changing demands of children thereby gaining a larger share of the substantial market.
