

Lewis Carroll and the House of Macmillan

Cambridge University Press - Morton N. Cohen

Description: -

-
 Childrens literature -- Publishing -- England -- History -- 19th century
 -- Sources.
 Publishers and publishing -- England -- History -- 19th century --
 Sources.
 Authors and publishers -- England.
 Authors, English -- 19th century -- Correspondence.
 Macmillan & Co.
 Carroll, Lewis, 1832-1898 -- Correspondence. Lewis Carroll and the House of Macmillan

-
 Cambridge studies in publishing and printing history Lewis Carroll and the House of Macmillan

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 1987

Filesize: 17.74 MB

Tags: #Morton #N. #Cohen

DODGSON, Charles Lutwidge The Hunting of the Snark. London: Macmillan and Co., 1876.

In 1854, he obtained first-class honours in the Final Honours School of Mathematics, standing first on the list, graduating Bachelor of Arts. I can honestly say that if I could have been. Presentation binding in white vellum intended for Alice Liddell.

[REFERENCE].

He was mathematically gifted and won a degree, which could have been the prelude to a brilliant academic career. Copenhagen Street in , north London is the location of the Lewis Carroll Children's Library.

DODGSON, Charles Lutwidge The Hunting of the Snark. London: Macmillan and Co., 1876.

He had been at Oxford only two days when he received a summons home. Original cloth recased and restored. Some authors have suggested that Dodgson may have suffered from this type of aura and used it as an inspiration in his work, but there is no evidence that he did.

9780521256025: Lewis Carroll & the House of Macmillan

In 1852, he obtained in Mathematics and was shortly thereafter nominated to a by his father's old friend Canon.

Lewis Carroll

Yvonne Hart, consultant neurologist at the , Oxford, considered Dodgson's symptoms.

Morton N. Cohen

Marquess of Bath, Longleat House: ex-Lord Cross--Herman V. Dodgson was ordained a deacon in the Church of England on 22 December 1861.

Lewis Carroll and the House of Macmillan on JSTOR

His body was buried at the in Guildford.

Related Books

- Tin taranga
- Kunstenars op school - konferentieverslag
- Sign makers and suppliers directory.
- Guidebook for the new Our new friends
- Robin-Hood-Balladen. - Ein Beitrag zum Studium der englischen Volksdichtung.