Cape Colony

Since it was necessary to take dozens of readings, protecting expensive instruments from bad weather could mean packing and unpacking the instruments several times before all the observations at a given station were completed. Last part of that reads pretty weird. Ann is described as a daughter unmarried aged 30 a dressmaker born Islington MDX 4.

Descendants of John Alston of Newton by Sudbury Suffolk

Whether Dolet is to be classed with the representatives of Protestantism or with the advocates of anti-Christian rationalism has been frequently disputed; by the principal Protestants of his own time he was not recognized, and by Calvin he is formally condemned, along with Agrippa and his master Villanova, as having uttered execrable blasphemies against the Son of God; but, to judge by the religious character of a large number of the books which he translated or published, such a condemnation is altogether misplaced. Phy- sician, New York City. Mary Fenley Allen died January 19, 1855, aged seventy-seven years, and was buried at Gray.
