He played at Wimbledon in the singles from 1935 to 1939, and then three more times after the war ended, losing every time in the first round. Contains the full singles results of every player in the top 150 as at 6 June 2005 for all events from 1 January 2005 through to Birmingham and Vienna. Others were examples of the major classics, some of which I had never seen, and these caused considerable interest.
