What methods did Stalin use to control the Soviet Union? He was a Zulu who lived in Hereroland for many years. Was Japan a Great Power by 1914? Chief Kengeza still lived in the Kaokoveld. For a brief period of time the enemy vigorously returned the fire, but then careened down the hillside, pursued by our shells and bullets, to come to a halt at a distance of approximately 300 metres.

Why the ANC won't be able to stay in power by unconstitutional means

This hijra, or migration, would be a turning point in the Prophet's mission and would mark the very beginning of the Muslim calendar. Also in that period, the revolutionary Irish government sought admission to the Versailles Peace Conference.

Changing of the guard? An anatomy of power within SWAPO of Namibia

Kambazembi wa Kangombe's successors at his death in September 1903 were his two sons David Kaonjonga Kambazembi, who became Chief of the Waterberg, and Salatiel Kambazembi, who became Chief of the remaining Kambazembi areas. This perception was deepened when, as appears to have been the case in 10 percent of lethal attacks on the local forces, the intelligence was flawed, as the victim had already left the security forces.
